OUR SPEAKERS

Woman on the Move is proud to announce our collaboration with White House Productions Event Planning for our first event in Kansas City! Jasira Monique & Chareda White are proud to feature Kansas City's most distinguished professionals and leaders as they share their stories & lessons from the matriarchs in their lives who have nurtured them along the way in our Mother Should Have Told Me... event.

Stacia Williams, Financial Advisor

Stacia founded "Women & Finance" and presents women-only workshops throughout the greater Kansas City area, covering financial topics including Social Security, tax planning strategies, wealth accumulation and income planning. She holds a life/health insurance and has passed the Series 65 securities exam.

Jennifer Crum, B2 Pilot

Maj Jennifer S. Crum is a B-2 Instructor Pilot and a T-38A Evaluator Pilot for the 393d Bomb Squadron, Whiteman AFB, Missouri. She also serves as an Assistant Director of Operations for the squadron's Combat Plans branch, responsible for all nuclear long-range planning and training to ensure continuous B-2 readiness for 43 Combat Mission Ready Pilots.

Anastasia Williams, Nutritionist

In May of 2021, Anastasia decided to take her health seriously in order to return to basketball and lost 70lbs! She believes that "food doesn't have to be bland to be healthy", and started "Tabled Nutrition". Her goal is to offer well-seasoned meal options, with the hope of creating a healthy enjoyable relationship with food for her nutrition clients.

Rana Naquin, Nomad

Rana is a global nomad, entrepreneur, Southern University graduate and Louisiana native. Like many, she experienced a life reset during the pandemic. She renewed her combined passions for entrepreneurship & travel. while studying Spanish and nomading her way through eight countries in Latin America.

OUR SPEAKERS

Donna Sims, Reiki Practitioner

Donna Sims was born in a suburb of Chicago, Illinois and was raised in the small town of Starkville, MS. Donna is the founder of Inner Beauty Ministries and was certified as a Yoni Steam Practitioner in 2018 and a Reiki Practitioner in 2019. Both professions focus on removing blocked energies from the body. Currently, she is an author and offers holistic healing methods, rituals, and spiritual advice to her family, friends, and clients.

Kjirstyn Vallinmaki, U.S. Military Veteran & Life Coach

Kjirstyn Vallinmaki's upbringing took her from Valley Stream, NY, to Kansas City, Missouri, where she navigated the foster care system. Over the last six years, she discovered her passion for guiding others on their life paths and helping them heal from various forms of grief. In 2020, Kjirstyn became a certified life coach and is currently pursuing certification as a grief recovery coach.

Jeanette Flippen, Attorney

Jeanette Flippen is a native of Uniontown, PA, and grew up on a farm in Central Virginia. She is a graduate of Virginia State University, the College of William and Mary and the University of Virginia. Her professional experience includes working as an English teacher, Human Resources Director, prosecutor and Administrative Law Judge. Jeanette has practiced law in Virginia, Georgia, Louisiana and the Federal Government.

Crystal Kelley, U.S. Marine Corps

Crystal E. Kelley served 21 faithful years in the U.S. Marine Corps, retiring as a Gunnery Sergeant in 2003. Since retirement, Crystal has worked in the public school system as a Junior ROTC instructor and with the Veteran Administrations Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (VR&E) program, helping to set up relationships with various agencies and organizations to assist veterans with Veterans' Recruitment Appointment (VRA) employment packages.

THANK YOU FOR SHARING THIS SPECIAL DAY WITH US!
